

EMPOWERING LEADERS, STRENGTHENING CHURCHES, SUSTAINING GROWTH.

Pastor Sharmyla Charis, founder of Hope in a Dry Land Ministries, is a seasoned non-denominational Pastor with broad experience in mentoring, teaching, administration, leadership, outreach, and ministry development. Ordained in 2002 and again in 2015 by The Dearly departed Bishop Dr. Paul Richardson, she holds degrees in Biblical Studies, Christian Counseling, Computer Science, Instructional Design, and Christian Apologetics, and is a licensed Mortgage Loan Originator.

Pastor Sharmyla's core strengths are: Influential Speaker, Transformational Leadership, Strategic Administration, Synergistic Team Building, and Biblical Counseling and Discipleship. She is dedicated to serving the Lord, equipping believers with spiritual maturity, and empowering leaders, God's Kingdom Vessels, to accomplish "greater works" by faith in Jesus Christ.

SIGNATURE TOPICS:

- ✓ Strategic Execution with Spiritual Precision:
"Strategic execution gains powerful momentum when moves are aligned with spiritual and intentional discernment."
- ✓ Team Building High Performance Ministry:
"Strong ministries are sustained by teams who are unified in vision, steward responsibility, and serve with both skill and humility."
- ✓ Operational Structure for Sustained Excellence:
"Excellence is not sustained by passion alone—it is preserved through structure, clarity, and consistent execution."
- ✓ Resilient Leadership & Spiritual Capacity:
"Resilient leadership flows from a deep spiritual well—one that sustains vision, strength, and faith through every season."

